Theology - Wikipedia
Theology is the systematic study of the nature of the divine, and more broadly, of religious belief. It is taught as an academic discipline, especially in universities and seminaries. It occupies itself with the unique context of analyzing the supernatural, but also deals with religious epistemology, and seeks to answer the question of revelation.

Christianity - Wikipedia
Christianity is the theology of Christian belief and practice. Such study concentrates primarily upon the texts of the Old Testament and of the New Testament, as well as on Christian tradition. Christian theologies use biblical exegesis, rational analysis and argument. Theologians may undertake the study of Christian theology for a variety of reasons, such as in order to:

2. The Image of God | Describing God
   Systematic theology is not biblical theology, but if it were Christian, it must necessarily rest upon biblical theology. Therefore, this paper, aiming primarily to determine a Christian belief, will have the following structure: First, I will examine the Old Testament teaching on the image of God; then, I will examine the New Testament teaching about the image; and, third, through an

3. Theology Everywhere - Discuss theology today to transform
   Discuss theology today to transform tomorrow- by Catherine Bird. This is the fourth of our series articles through the year from Spectrum, on the theme ‘Darkness and Light are both alike to Thee’. 8. Faith and Theology
The account of the emotions (or passions) serves an important role in the anthropological of Thomas Aquinas’ Summa theologica, being situated between the treatment of human will and agency on the one hand (2.8.21), and the treatment on virtues on the other (2.8.8). These discussions all useful, of course, under the heading of the human person’s telos, which is...

13. What is the Leviathan mentioned in the Bible? - ThoughtCo
   Dec 15, 2021: We can define “Leviathan” as “all of existence,” “the entirety of the universe,” or “reality itself.” God is the whole-thing-together. God’s parts include all of the objects, their relations, and their rules for interaction. God is the biggest conceivable existent, which is the totality of existence itself. In a word, God, is Nature.

14. 3 Lessons about Scriptures from 2 Timothy 3:16-17
   Apr 03, 2014: Paul uses the term “sibyllic” on the efficiency of Scripture by saying, “that the man of God may be complete, equipped for every good work” (v. 17). Paul here uses two forms of the Greek word for equip for iatric adjective (“complete”) and a participle (“equipped”) to make his point. The man of God is super-equipped by the Word of God.
