Salvation in Christianity - Wikipedia
Salvation in Christianity, or deliverance or redemption, is the "saving [of] human beings from death and separation from God" by Christ's death and resurrection.. Christian salvation not only concerns the atonement itself, but also the question of how one partakes of this salvation, by faith, baptism, or obedience; and the question of whether this salvation is individual or universal.

Wonkette - News

Nonviolent direct action seeks to create such a crisis and foster such a tension that a community which has constantly refused to negotiate is forced to confront the issue. It seeks so to dramatize the issue that it can no longer be ignored. My citing the creation of tension as part of the work of the nonviolent resister may sound rather shocking.

Jan 05, 2021 · The Christian, Trinitarian God, is the necessary precondition for moral absolutes. Since he is the universal being, the creator of the universe, and all of us, He reveals what is right and wrong out of His won character. That is the universal standard by which we must obey, and it is codified in the Bible. We can ground our moral right and wrong.
