There were big changes in 2020 in the world of restructuring and insolvency legislation with the introduction of two new restructuring tools: the Moratorium and the Restructuring Plan, as well as the

In July 2021, the Tánaiste received Cabinet approval to commence work on draft legislation which, if enacted, will see paid statutory sick leave introduced in Ireland for the first time. By way of

Yet, the Soviets ran huge losses as they gave weapons as tools of power projection, losing billions of dollars in the process, and contributing to Soviet insolvency. In 1991, after the Libyan

The government is reviewing its contracts with the firm and has requested that its Insolvency Service investigates whether although it is well known that other European countries – particularly

London: P&O Ferries is facing a criminal and civil probe into its abrupt pushing his European counterparts to agree

Munich prosecutors confirmed Monday that the company’s accounts were impounded, though the measure will have no immediate effect because FinFischer is undergoing insolvency proceedings eavesdrop

2041: According to the trustees of the Social Security program, the date of Social Security’s official insolvency comes in 2041, more than a decade sooner than CBO’s estimate and a year earlier

Pepper would be paid less than 1 per cent of its debt under his proposed insolvency arrangement. Mr Bourke, a well-known figure on Dublin’s nightlife scene, has operated popular bars and

P&O Ferries is facing a criminal and civil probe into its abrupt narrowly averted insolvency in March by meeting a key monthly payment deadline, but concerns are mounting over whether it can remain afloat next month, industry sources told Reuters. Its collapse

gazprom marketing avoided insolvency in march but pressure Becker, who commented for the BBC at Wimbledon last year, is facing a three-week trial at a south London court, where he denies 24 charges under the Insolvency Act relating to the period between Becker on trial accused of failing to hand over trophies to settle debts There were 355 business failures or liquidations in the Irish economy last year, according to insolvency practitioner Kylemore Karting in west Dublin, Europe’s largest indoor karting arena Zombie businesses and rent arrears: the legacy of the pandemic Governor Gabriel Makhlouf said the bank may have to update its assessment of “the potential size of the insolvency problem” given the elevated uncertainty caused by the war. Economic cost of war looms for the state, warns Paschal Donohoe GFG Alliance, owned by commodities tycoon Sanjeev Gupta, has appointed Sandip Biswas, a former executive with Tata Steel, as chief investment officer GFG Alliance appoints Tata Steel executive as chief investment officer Significant slowdowns in growth are expected in parts of Western Europe and Central, South and South-East Asia. The ongoing war in Ukraine is likely to reinforce the monetary tightening trend in