13.2 The Leadership Process - Principles of Management

We refer to the following principles as the leadership process. Edwin Hollander, after many years of studying leadership, suggested that the follower is the most critical factor in any leadership event. 13.2.1 First, the follower perceives the situation and comes to define the needs that the leader must fulfill. In addition, the follower is who either rejects or accepts leadership.

QUALITY MANAGEMENT IN HEALTH CARE: CONCEPTS, PRINCIPLES, MANAGEMENT

The ISO 15189:2012 standard includes a clause regarding risk management (4.14.6). The text reads: “The laboratory shall evaluate the impact of work processes and potential failures on examination results as they affect patient safety, and shall modify processes to reduce or eliminate the identified risks and document decisions and actions.”
